

Funding cuts and personalisation - Delivering housing, care and support services for older people in a changing world

Free half day development and practice seminars/roundtables for providers and commissioners

Seminar 1: Sheltered Housing and Support Services

Supporting People is going, going gone! Where next for sheltered housing and housing support, community alarms and telecare services?

Thursday 16th June 2011, Incommunities, Bradford

Seminar 2: Extra Care

The implications of personalisation for extra care: what will be the future service delivery and funding models for the provision of care and support?

Tuesday 28th June 2011, Yorkshire Housing, Leeds

Supported by:

Seminar 1: What is the future for sheltered housing and support services – background information

Delegates attending this seminar/round table discussion will:

- hear about what is happening in relation to commissioning housing support and service models from both commissioning and provider perspectives; and
- share ideas and views about how to address the future for sheltered housing both in terms of ensuring the stock is fit for the future and sustainable and about future support service, and commissioning models for sheltered housing and housing support.

Seminar 2: What is the future for commissioning and funding services in extra care housing – background information

Delegates attending this seminar/round table discussion will:

- Hear examples of current commissioning and service models from both commissioning and provider perspectives; and
- Share learning and views about future service, funding and commissioning models for extra care.

Who should attend?

Providers in the social and private sector and local authority commissioners.

How the seminars will run

The seminars will combine short inputs of practical examples with a round table discussion/shared learning approach. Participants will be able to share the issues they face and contribute their ideas for the future. See page two for more details of each seminar. The seminars will be facilitated by Denise Gillie and Peter Fletcher from Peter Fletcher Associates (PFA), who have worked for the DH Housing LIN locally and nationally.

Registration: 9.15am; Start: 9.45am; Finish: 12.45pm*

Please note: whilst we will endeavour to keep to these timings, they may alter slightly when our full programme is finalised.

How to book

To encourage discussion and participation each seminar will have a maximum of 30 delegates with places limited to 2 people per organisation. Applicants will be accepted on a first come, first served basis so please book early to avoid disappointment. (Please note, there will be a £20 charge for non attendance)

For further information on the individual events and for booking facilities, please click here