

Housing LIN

Connecting people, ideas and resources

Keepmoat®

RIBA

Housing LIN London Seminar

Designing for an ageing population

18th November 2014

Wren Room (6th floor)
Royal Institute of British
Architects (RIBA)
Headquarters,
66 Portland Place,
London W1B 1AD

PROGRAMME

TIME	TOPIC AND SPEAKER
9.30	Registration and refreshments
10.00	Welcome & introduction Jeremy Porteus, Director, Housing Learning and Improvement Network
10.05	Ageing, housing and design: Building the evidence base Anne Dye, Head of Technical Research, Royal Institute of British Architects
10.30	Lessons from HAPPI award winning designs David Birkbeck, Chief Executive, Design for Homes
11.00	Shifting Thinking – co-designing homes for aspirational ageing Julia Ashley, Executive Director Commercial Services, C&C; David and Lee Smith, Residents; and David McMahon, Architect
11.40	Designing for health and well-being in later life Sarah Wigglesworth, Professor of Architecture, University of Sheffield
12.10	Questions and panel debate Chaired By Paula Broadbent, Keepmoat
12.30	Close

